AROUND TOWN

Spartanburg County to host 2023, 2024 NJCAA Division II Softball Championships

Spartanburg County will host collegiate softball teams from around the country at Tyger River Park for the NJCAA Division II Softball Championships in 2023 and 2024.

The National Junior College Athletic Association chose Spartanburg to host the nationwide tournaments at its convention in April.

"Spartanburg is incredibly excited to partner with the NJCAA to bring the Division II softball championships to Tyger River Park in 2023 and 2024. Hosting an NJCAA championship further cements Spartanburg's growth as a sports tourism destination," said Kristyn Hawkins, Spartanburg Convention & Visitors Bureau Director of Sports Tourism Development. "An event of this magnitude will have significant impact on Spartanburg County's sports tourism economy."

The tournaments will be played at Tyger River Park, which hosted the USA Softball Junior Olympic Cup and Women's National Team Training Camp in July 2019. That event brought more than 3,000 people to Spartanburg County.

The 2023 NJCAA Division II Softball Championship will be played May 23-27. Dates for the 2024 tournament are to be determined.

Spartanburg Methodist College Angel Fund

The SMC Angel Fund was established in 2014 to assist students with immediate needs and emergencies. Over the last 6 years, it has served 37 students giving students $20,221 in financial assistance.

With more students in need due to current circumstances, the fund needs to be built back up. Thanks to the community's generosity, there is now a balance of $2,250 in the Angel Fund to help students. The school would love to see this balance get to $5,000 with the community's help.

If you are interested in making a gift to The Angel Fund please visit <https://www.smcs.edu/make-a-donation/>. Choose SMC Angel Fund in the designation box.

USC Upstate-produced ESPN+ broadcasts show expansive growth

Fall and winter viewership numbers for the Big South Conference schools' ESPN+ broadcast packages were shared recently, and the USC Upstate-produced events led the conference in Total Unique Viewers. For the 47 events in the 2019-20 year, Upstate broadcasts attracted 191,850 Total Unique Viewers who consumed more than 1.199 million minutes of content. The average viewership per event, 4,082, was also the highest in the Big South Conference.

Despite losing nearly 28 scheduled broadcasts when the COVID-19 pandemic halted all NCAA competition in mid-March, Upstate's growth was significant over 2018-19. Total Unique Viewers rose by 135% year-to-year, and minutes watched also increased 31%. This is made more impressive by the fact that the 2019-20 growth in viewers and minutes was accomplished in 20 fewer broadcasts.

Internally known as "SpartanVision", the video services department that produces ESPN+ live events also handles in-venue videoboard content. This past basketball season the team added two ESPN3 contests (Homecoming basketball doubleheader) to the ESPN+ slate. This doubleheader attracted an additional 2,200+ unique viewers watching nearly 51,000 minutes of action over the course of the day.

In 2019-20, Spartan Vision produced events for men's and women's soccer, volleyball, men's and women's basketball and a handful of softball and baseball games before the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic.

USC Upstate, Ingles team up for Soccer United Against Hunger

Coaches and players from USC Upstate women's and men's soccer program are joining forces with the greater collegiate soccer community across the country for Soccer United Against Hunger, a nationwide food drive spearheaded by NCAA men's and women's soccer coaches. USC Upstate and Ingles will partner for this food drive to benefit Second Harvest of Metrolina in Spartanburg County from June 17 - 30.

As the COVID-19 pandemic continues to affect the American economy, food banks and pantries across the country have seen soaring need. Over 40 million Americans have applied for unemployment assistance over the last 60 days, while simultaneously food banks have seen a steep drop-off in cash and food donations. Soccer United Against Hunger, powered by United Soccer Coaches, is taking place across the nation throughout the month of June to support the important efforts of local food banks and food pantries.

Ingles Markets, the official grocery store of USC Upstate athletics, will serve as the collection point for food drive donations at 10 Spartanburg area locations. The complete list is noted below. Second Harvest is in the greatest need of the following items: canned goods (meats, entrees, vegetables and fruit), peanut butter, pastas, rice, dried beans, ready to eat meals, and boxed meals. All items must be within product expiration date.

Among the Spartans soccer student-athletes with local ties leading the charge against hunger are:

From the women's program:

Jackie Marshall (Sr., Greer, SC/Riverside)

Madison Pollard (Jr., Spartanburg, SC/Spartanburg)

Jada Pereira (So., Greer, SC/Riverside)

From the men's program:

Hayden Anderson (So., Simpsonville, SC/Woodmont)

Paul Bobai (So., Zaria, Nigeria/USC Lancaster/Mauldin)

"I am so incredibly proud of our team's display of unity and leadership despite the uncertainty and individual hardships they are each facing. Not one student-athlete hesitated in their willingness to help their community when presented the options on how to participate in Soccer United Against Hunger," said USC Upstate women's soccer assistant coach Liz Manner. "From this experience, I hope they learn to keep kindness in their hearts and that no act of compassion is insubstantial as they continue to grow and develop into servant leaders who support, advocate, and fight to make a difference in the world."

Will a driving vacation be safe this year?

From the American Counseling Association

Summer vacation planning has become a more demanding challenge for many this year. As parts of the country begin to open up, many people are anxious to escape from having been locked down at home and to be someplace different for a while.

Past vacation choices might have meant considering travel overseas or a flight to another part of this country. This year the planning and possible destinations for most of us will probably require different choices. Road trips are the likely choices for many.

If it's possible, getting away for even a short trip can be a good idea. If your family has been on lockdown for most of the spring, a little time away and some enjoyable distractions can bring a number of benefits.

All the time being quarantined has helped to raise the family tension levels for many of us. Research has shown that even a little vacation time can help us feel more relaxed and less stressed. A vacation trip is not only a chance to do something different, but it offers opportunities to focus on things that are a distraction from the constant health worries of these past few months. Vacations, in general, have been shown to help fight depression and reduce stress levels. When done right, they can be especially helpful in light of the troubling and scary times we have all been facing.

Of course, planning a vacation trip these days can present its own stress and anxiety-producing problems. There are still many questions and worries about commercial airline travel. Will a possible destination, like a beach or theme park, even be open and safe?

There may also be worries, if overnight stays are involved, as to how safe hotels are going to be. Fortunately, all of the hotel chains report they're making special CDC recommended cleaning and distancing changes to insure the well-being of their staffs and guests.

While not everyone will want to, or should want to, get away from home this summer, if done right a vacation getaway can help you feel more relaxed. It can be a chance for something different, or perhaps the opportunity to catch up with friends or relatives that haven't been seen in some time.

Do some research to keep your vacation trip planning as safe and simple as possible and you could find a vacation trip this summer is the relaxing change you need.

Make the backyard a destination for family fun

(StatePoint) With many events canceled and public venues closed, the backyard is likely going to be the new hot spot destination for families nationwide. But staying home doesn't have to be boring. Using these tips, you can put together an afternoon of sunshine and fun, right in your own backyard.

Focus on the Food

For delicious wings, you don't need to head to a favorite restaurant. You can prepare them at home with this recipe for Milo's Sweet Tea Wings:

Ingredients:

- 3 cups Milo's Sweet Tea
- 2.5 pounds chicken wings, cut into drums and flats
- 2 teaspoons garlic salt, divided
- 1.5 - 2 teaspoons cayenne pepper, depending on heat preference
- 2 teaspoons garlic powder
- 2 teaspoons chili powder
- 2 teaspoons paprika
- 2 teaspoons lemon pepper

Instructions:

- In a medium bowl, whisk together Milo's Sweet Tea and 2 teaspoons garlic salt; set aside. Place chicken wings in a large shallow dish. Pour Milo's mixture over chicken; cover and refrigerate for 8 hours.
- Preheat grill to medium or oven to 400 F.
- In a large bowl, combine remaining garlic salt, cayenne, garlic powder, chili powder, paprika, and lemon pepper. Toss chicken and spices in large zip lock bag or bowl until evenly coated.

- For grill, place wings over heat turning frequently. Cook for 20-25 minutes or until the internal temperature is 165 degrees and skin is crispy.

• For oven, arrange wings on a lightly greased baking sheet. Bake 35 to 40 minutes, turning halfway through, until skin is browned and tips are crispy. Serve warm. For extra crisp, toss wings on the grill over medium-high heat for three minutes per side before serving.

Find even more recipes perfect for a backyard barbecue at DrinkMilos.com/recipes.

Cool Off

Keep a cooler of delicious drinks handy to stay refreshed on a warm day. Iced tea is always a summer classic, but be sure to have a variety of flavors on deck to satisfy everyone's taste buds -- sweet tea, zero calorie sweet tea, and tea mixed with lemonade, to name a few. The high-quality, fresh beverages offered by Milo's are made with natural ingredients and have no added colors or preservatives.

Create a Theme Night

Choose a different theme for every backyard BBQ you enjoy with your family -- whether it's all songs about summer or you focus on a particular decade, you can create a specialized playlist to set the tone and dress for the occasion.

Game On

You may be feeling a bit cooped up these days, so be sure to play some yard games that allow you to stretch your legs as well as concentrate. Cornhole and bocce make great choices, or set up outsized versions of your favorite board games that are best played outdoors.

With delicious eats, cool drinks, games and music, you can make the backyard the ideal place to "get away from it all" and enjoy an afternoon of family fun.

IRS Criminal Investigation division reports variety of Economic Impact Payment scams

In the last few months, the IRS Criminal Investigation division (CI) has seen a variety of Economic Impact Payment (EIP) scams and other financial schemes looking to take advantage of unsuspecting taxpayers. CI continues to work with law enforcement agencies domestically and abroad to educate taxpayers about these scams and investigate the criminals perpetrating them during this challenging time.

"Criminals seize on every opportunity to exploit bad situations, and this pandemic is no exception," said IRS Commissioner Chuck Rettig. "The IRS is fully focused on protecting Americans while delivering Economic Impact Payments in record time. The pursuit of those who participate in COVID-19 related scams, intentionally abusing the programs intended to help millions of Americans during these uncertain times, will long remain a significant priority of both the IRS and IRS-CI."

Criminals are continuing to use the COVID-19 Economic Impact Payments as cover for schemes to steal personal information and money. Scams related to COVID-19 are not limited to stealing EIPs from taxpayers, however. CI has already seen scams related to the organized selling of fake at-home test kits, offers to sell fake cures, vaccines, pills and advice on unproven treatments for COVID-19. Other scams purport to sell large quantities of medical supplies through the creation of fake shops, websites, social media accounts and email addresses where the criminal fails to deliver promised supplies after receiving funds.

"Criminals try to take advantage of our most vulnerable times and our most vulnerable populations. But because we have seen many of these criminals and schemes before, we know how to find them and we know how to expose them," said Don Fort, Chief of IRS

Criminal Investigation. "And because COVID-19 is a global problem, it requires a global solution. Not only are we leveraging our financial investigative expertise domestically, we are working hand-in-hand with our J5 partners on those COVID-19 cases that cross borders. There truly is no place for criminals to hide."

Other COVID-19 related scams involve setting up fake charities soliciting donations for individuals, groups and areas affected by the disease. Some criminals are offering opportunities to invest early in companies working on a vaccine for the disease promising that the "company" will dramatically increase in value as a result. These promotions are often styled as "research reports," make predictions of a specific "target price," and relate to microcap stocks, or low-priced stocks issued by the smallest of companies with limited publicly available information.

Finally, CI has also seen a tremendous increase in phishing schemes utilizing emails, letters, texts and links. These phishing schemes are using keywords such as "Corona Virus," "COVID-19", and "Stimulus" in varying ways. These schemes are blasted to large numbers of people known by the bad actors in an effort to get personally identifying information or financial account information to include account numbers and passwords. Most of these new schemes are actively playing on the fear and unknown of the virus and the stimulus payments.

Coronavirus-related (COVID-19) scams should be reported to the National Center for Disaster Fraud (NCDF) Hotline at 1-866-720-5721 or submitted through the NCDF Web Complaint Form. The NCDF is a national coordinating agency within the Department of Justice's Criminal Division dedicated to improving the detection, prevention, investigation and prosecution of criminal conduct related to natural and man-made disasters and other emergencies, such as the coronavirus (COVID-19). Hotline staff will obtain information regarding your complaint, which will then be reviewed by law enforcement officials.

Taxpayers can also report fraud or theft of their Economic Impact Payments to the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration (TIGTA). Reports can be made online at TIPS.TIGTA.GOV. TIGTA investigates external attempts to corruptly interfere with federal tax administration, including IRS-related coronavirus scams.

Also, taxpayers can always report phishing attempts to the IRS. Those who receive unsolicited emails or social media attempts to gather information that appear to be from either the IRS or an organization closely linked to the IRS, such as the Electronic Federal Tax Payment System (EFTPS), should forward it to phishing@irs.gov. Taxpayers are encouraged not to engage potential scammers online or on the phone.

Learn more by going to the Report Phishing and Online Scams page on IRS.gov. Official IRS information about the COVID-19 pandemic and economic impact payments can be found on the Coronavirus Tax Relief page on IRS.gov, which is updated frequently.
