Wofford featured in Princeton Review's 'Best 381 Colleges'

Wofford College is one of the nation's best institutions for undergraduate education, according to The Princeton Review. The education services company features Wofford in the new 2017 edition of its flagship college guide, "The Best 381 Colleges," released on August 30.

Only about 15 percent of America's 2,500 four-year colleges are profiled in the book, one of The Princeton Review's most popular guides. Published annually since 1992, it includes detailed profiles of the colleges with rating scores for all institutions in eight categories, plus ranking lists of top 20 schools in the book in 62 categories based on The Princeton Review's surveys of student attending the colleges.

Wofford President Nayef H. Samhat notes that Wofford has been included in the prestigious best colleges guide since its inception. The Princeton Review also earlier this year recognized Wofford as a "college that pays you back," providing students a superb education and great career preparation at an affordable price.

Spartanburg County student begins Science & Mathematics Governor's School's Virtual Engineering Program - Accelerate

Columbia - The South Carolina Governor's School for Science and Mathematics (GSSM) is pleased to welcome its fourth cohort of students to its virtual engineering program, Accelerate. Sixty-one rising sophomores from 10 partner school districts and 14 high schools comprise the incoming class.

From Spartanburg High School, Accelerate welcomes Pramita Suresh, child of Shanthi Suresh and Suresh Krishnaraj.

Developed by GSSM, Accelerate is a three-year, virtual engineering program designed to help high-achieving students complete up to 41 college credits toward an engineering degree. Students remain in their home high schools throughout the academic year while participating in virtual classes taught by both GSSM and Clemson faculty. Accelerate also includes Saturday experiences, summer camps and senior projects. Year three culminates with an industry internship.

Spartanburg School District Five and District Seven are included in the participating school districts.

Kim Bowman, CEO, GSSM Foundation and EVP Strategic Direction, GSSM receives a grant check from Michael Durham, Piedmont Natural Gas Community Relations Manager.

Piedmont Natural Gas invests in supporting Upstate science & technology camps

Columbia - The South Carolina Governor's School for Science & Mathematics (GSSM) received a $5,000 investment from Piedmont Natural Gas in support of GSSM's iTEAMS Xtreme: Next Generation camp in Greenville County and iTEAMS Xtreme in Spartanburg County.

Piedmont Natural Gas' donation funded iTEAMS Xtreme: Next Generation, GSSM's newest day camp hosted in counties across South Carolina. The camp was geared to inspire rising seventh and eighth graders to pursue careers in the fields of computer science and technology through hands-on, team-based projects. Exploring the world of Arduino technology, campers created projects that explored the various uses of microcontrollers, analyzed how infrared remotes work and, ultimately, built and programmed a robot. After designing and testing, they presented their creations in an iTEAMS Xtreme: Next Generation Smart Faire.

Piedmont Natural Gas' donation also supported iTEAMS Xtreme, GSSM's computer science, technology and entrepreneurship day camp for rising seventh and eighth graders in Spartanburg County. Campers explored the latest technologies while engaging their innovative side to develop an idea for a new product. Challenges focused on 3-D printing, mobile app development, and creating interactive objects using MaKey MaKey.

"We are so grateful that Piedmont Natural Gas supported our iTEAMS camps this summer," said Kim Bowman, CEO, GSSM Foundation and EVP Strategic Direction, GSSM. "Their investment goes a long way toward helping GSSM cultivate the next generation of leaders and innovators in South Carolina."

This year, thanks to the support from Piedmont Natural Gas and other sponsors, GSSM delivered iTEAMS Xtreme: Next Generation in Greenville at Fisher Middle School June 13th-16th, and iTEAMS Xtreme in Spartanburg June 27th-30th.

Spartan Spinners bringing modern square dance to the Spartanburg area

The Spartan Spinners have been active in the Spartanburg area for over forty years. The club dances on the first and third Saturday nights at Holy Communion Lutheran Church at 8:00 pm. The public is welcome to come and observe dancing.

Not only do they dance in Spartanburg, but dancers attend festivals across America in Gatlinburg, Myrtle Beach, and occasionally other countries. Modern Square Dancing is relatively new on the scene. Modern (sometimes called Western) Square Dancing did not originate until the 1950's and is now called in over thirty countries worldwide. Today's dancers square up to pop, rock-n-roll, and bluegrass music.

The club is now sponsoring classes for new dancers. If you are looking for a way to make new friends, have great fun, and enjoy good exercise in an informal setting, square dancing can be your activity. Not only do you have a low impact activity with smooth background music, but your mind is stimulated by following called directions. This activity becomes a stress reliever.

After new dancers have

learned the calls, they have an inexpensive means of exercising and partying with friends on Saturday night. New dancers are able to join the regular dance on Saturday nights after completing the first few weeks of lessons.

Each fall, the club invites new people to take lessons. A "Welcome Night" will be held on Tuesday, September 13, at Holy Communion Lutheran Church at 1430 John B. White Blvd. at 7:00. Light food, good fellowship, and some introductory dancing at the party. Lessons will begin on Thursday, September 15th at 7:00 pm at Woodland Heights Recreation Center. A regular dance partner is recommended, but not required.

The lessons are conducted by the Spartan Spinner's Caller, Tom Pustinger, who always provides easy to follow instructions for the class. This is a great opportunity to relax and to meet new friends. "Angels", who are current club members, will always be available to help the new dancers. As the lessons progress, students can participate in regular dances on the first and third Saturday nights at Holy Communion Lutheran Church at 1430 John B. White, Sr. Blvd. in Spartanburg.

Check out our website at spartanspinners.com or call 978-5097 for more information or attend the Welcome Night on Tuesday, September 13th at 7 p.m. at the Lutheran Church.

Finding positive ways to handle the loss of a job

From the American Counseling Association

While reports indicate the current economy is pretty good for most people, and that unemployment is at its lowest level in years, the good news doesn't hold true for everybody. Every day, people across the country learn that they are being let go.

And regardless the reason for being terminated, it is never a pleasant experience.

The financial burden of losing a job is its most noticeable effect, but there can also be significant mental and emotional stress.

Experts say reactions to a termination are often similar to what we experience upon the death of a loved one or the end of a relationship -- immediate reactions of shock and denial, and of finding it difficult to accept what has happened.

These reactions are often followed by anger. And while those who took away your job may be the direct, unfortunately the anger is usually taken out on those closest to you. You may find yourself tense and stressed, more easily upset and quicker to react harshly to family and friends.

Some people become pre-occupied with trying to get that old job back, no matter how unrealistic or even undesirable that might be. A person may also experience sadness and depression along with questioning his or her worth and abilities.

Understanding that these are all normal reactions can help someone get through them quicker, accept the job loss and start creating a new work life.

Start to help yourself through the trauma of job loss by not adding extra stress to your life. It's not a time for major life changes, but rather to continue living normally. Eat healthy, exercise, get plenty of rest and keep socially involved, maintaining contact with friends and family.

It's also a good time to evaluate and set future goals. Is now a time for more education, to look to a new career field or to sharpen up your job skills? Have you evaluated what will make you feel rewarded and fulfilled in a new job? Are you using your network of family, friends and other contacts to help in your job search? Rather than dwelling on the lost job, focus on what's to come.

If you find job loss is overwhelming you, consider working with a professional counselor specializing in career guidance. He or she has the training, guidance and tools to help you to a more positive future.

October 21-23:
The Little Mermaid
No doubt a family favorite, this under and above water adventure is certainly a family favorite. This classic tale of a mermaid who sacrifices her beautiful voice to have legs so she can follow her dream to be with her prince, is vibrant and emotionally complex. With adorable and silly underwater creatures and a feisty sea witch, this Hans Christian Andersen fairytale is not to be confused with the Disney production. Never produced as a ballet in the upstate, this is a don't miss production.

November 20:
The Nutcracker: Land of the Sweets Party
For every child with a sweet tooth and parent too! This is the perfect party to begin the Christmas and Nutcracker season. The second annual Nutcracker children's party held at the Chapman Cultural Center, is an afternoon filled with sweets, holiday arts and crafts, face-painting, storytelling by Clara, dancers from The Nutcracker and so much more. Fun for the entire family. This event sold out early last year. Limited about of tables, so reserve early. Tables are now on sale. Call 583-0339.

December 9-11:
The Nutcracker
Christmas is not Christmas without this Upstate annual family tradition. Tchaikovsky's iconic score set with the timeless story of the awe and excitement of the night before Christmas will capture the hearts of young and old. With a colossal tree which magically grows and snowflakes that blanket the stage, Clara and her Nutcracker Prince glide into a radiant Land of Enchantment. Set in turn-of-the-century replete with more than 100 dancers, original painted scenery created for Ballet Spartanburg, astounding magic tricks and new surprises each season, The Nutcracker is the ultimate Christmas gift.

February 10-11: Fire and Passion: The Studio Series
Be inspired by choreography that is woven from feelings of heartbreak to the ecstasy of eternal love. The Studio Series is an intimate, organic and up close series designed to provide a different dance experience. The Company, under the direction of Carlos Agudelo, presents new and powerful choreography. This one hour program is the perfect romantic appetizer to start any Valentine's evening celebration. Enjoy an evening of champagne and dance and mingle with the Professional Dancers.

March 24-25:
Celebrating the Power of Women: DanSynergy 9
Collaborating with local musicians, visual and performing artists, filmmakers and writers, creates new and thought-provoking works each season as part of the DanSynergy Series. Carlos Agudelo along with a team of inspirational women including local writers Michel Stone and Kerry Ferguson, Ballet Spartanburg choreographer Lona Gomez and NYC choreographer Michelle Ulerich, along with local female musicians, create a stimulating homage to the power of women. "Historically women contributed to the old sense of art as "muses" or "images of beauty". The old High Culture idea is nonexistent. Women today are brilliant creators of art and it is time to honor the intelligence, grace, beauty and spirit of their impact of present day and our future," stated Teresa Hough, Executive Director. "What better way to honor such impact than through collaborations of women and reflect their stories through music and dance."

April 21-22:
An American in Paris
Paris, the most romantic of all cities in the world is the backdrop for this powerful love story between an expatriate American who becomes a painter to make a living and a beautiful, young Parisian girl. Through a chance meeting at a small café, the two are meant to be together. Although forces keep them apart, in the end they are reunited on the banks of the Seine River. The original choreography by Artistic Director, Carlos Agudelo, for this production will charm the audience through the elegance of ballet combined with the beauty of French music. This finale production of the season is not to be missed.

Three Greenville County men plead guilty to robbery of Carolina Cashers

Greenville - Acting United States Attorney Beth Drake stated that Mark Betancourt, age 31, of Greenville; Juan Betancourt, age 23, of Greenville; and Joseph Sansosti, age 23, of Simpsonville, entered guilty pleas in federal court in Greenville, to one count Hobbs Act Robbery, one count Conspiracy to Commit Hobbs Act Robbery, and one count Brandishing a Firearm in Furtherance of a Crime of Violence.

Senior United States District Judge Henry M. Herlong, Jr., of Greenville accepted the guilty pleas and will impose sentence after he has reviewed the presentence reports which will be prepared by the U.S. Probation Office.

placing her in a headlock, and pressed a gun to her head. Sansosti demanded money from the employee, which the robbers placed in a bag held by Juan Betancourt. The two men then ran out of the store to the getaway car, which was driven by Mark Betancourt.

Walmart unveils its ‘Chosen by Kids’ top toys list for 2016

Bentonville, AR – From the smallest to the tallest, Walmart polled hundreds of kids to find out just what they will be including in their letters to Santa this year. Last week, Walmart unveiled its annual top toy list, Chosen By Kids, including six exclusives such as the Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles Remote Control Skateboarding Mikey and Disney® Princess Carriage. The retailer also announced the return of its popular layaway program, which opened on Sept. 2. Between Walmart’s layaway program, and their efforts to make shopping easier for customers no matter when and how they want to shop – in store, online, on a mobile device or a combination – the retailer is helping everyone up their “elf skills” this holiday.

“Santa may know who is naughty and nice, but we know what’s on their list,” said Anne Marie Kehoe, vice president of toys at Walmart U.S. “Santa’s workshop is hard to compete with, but we are confi-

Walmart will have more than 400 exclusive toys in addition to the six toys that are exclusives on the Chosen By Kids list. Some of these exclusives include Star Wars 3-3/4” Black Series collector figures, the Barbie Camping Collection and a FlipaZoo plush.

The Chosen By Kids list is just the beginning of Walmart’s season-long celebration of toys. Beyond the top 25 toys, Walmart will have thousands of toys to choose from available both in Walmart stores and on Walmart.com.

Walmart’s layaway program began Sept. 2, allowing customers to get a head start on holiday shopping. This popular service offers customers the opportunity to stay on budget, keep gifts hidden until the holidays or pay over time. Customers can find all of the top toys available to reserve through the layaway program, along with thousands of other items in Walmart stores.

There is no opening fee for customers to start a layaway account and they only need to put down 10% (or $10, whichever is greater). Walmart has kept its minimum threshold again this year. Customers have until Dec. 12 to pay off their account.

Is your money going up the chimney? How to make your fireplace more efficient (StatePoint) Nothing beats gathering around the fire in winter. Unfortunately, a wood-burning fireplace could be a major source of energy loss in your home, sending your utility bills sky high.

However, you don’t need to sacrifice the fire to improve your home’s energy efficiency and reduce your heating bills; in fact, it’s possible to convert your wood fireplace into an efficient heat source with the following tips.

Upgrade Your Fireplace

Consider a gas fireplace insert. They generate more radiant heat and are cleaner to maintain than traditional masonry style wood-burning fireplaces, which are a leading source of indoor air loss.

“Traditional wood fireplaces add a lot of charm to a home, but they are inefficient -- even when they aren’t in use,” says Andy Tesch, brand director of Heat & Glo, the leading manufacturer of innovative gas fireplaces, stoves and inserts. “A gas fireplace insert is a great alternative to maintain the ambiance a fire creates while enhancing efficiency.”

A gas fireplace insert is cleaner, too, creating no ash, soot, or smoke. Models like the Escape from Heat & Glo use energy-saving FireBrick technology to increase efficiency and are low maintenance, turning on and off with the flip of a switch. Learn more about the benefits of a gas fireplace insert at heatnglo.com/insertawareness.

If you can’t part with the aroma, crackle and act of building a real fire, consider pellet and EPA-certified wood inserts, which can be an easy, clean and efficient alternative as well.

Best Practices

If making the upgrade to an insert is not possible, a few simple steps can drastically improve the energy efficiency of your fireplace. Number one, when the fireplace is not in use, close the chimney damper. You’ll prevent warm air and your money from going up and out the chimney. A flue sealer is an affordable, inflatable stopper that fits below the damper to further seal off the chimney and is a worthwhile purchase.

Proper maintenance can also go far to improve your fireplace’s efficiency. Have it inspected, maintained and cleaned annually. Even if you love DIY, you may want to hire a contractor to ensure the job is done safely and thoroughly.

Considering adding doors or a cover to the front of your fireplace to help reduce the draft and improve the look. There are many styles available to enhance your interior design.

This winter, bring together both traditional charm and modern energy efficiency. A few upgrades and habits will allow you to enjoy your fireplace all winter long, while keeping heating bills low.
