City Council hears update on Blue Duck scooter rental pilot program

Spartanburg City Council heard an update Monday, October 25 on the six-month scooter-sharing pilot program the City launched with Blue Duck scooters of San Antonio, Texas in May. According to numbers provided by the company, over 14,300 riders have used the scooters between May and September, with a peak of 4,794 in July. Those numbers are better than what Blue Duck initially anticipated when launching in Spartanburg according to company representatives. The service area for the scooters includes Downtown Spartanburg and surrounding neighborhoods in the City. The scooters utilize GPS technology, and will not function outside their service area or within areas that have been restricted.

The City has worked closely with Blue Duck throughout the pilot program ensure rider and pedestrian safety while providing a new micromobility option for residents and visitors, restricting riders from the Morgan Square area and E Main Street between Liberty St. and Church St due to higher number of pedestrians in those areas. The scooters are also restricted from city trails.

City Council is expected to consider an extension of the scooter-sharing program at their next meeting on

Biscuit box

The English spoken in England can sometimes confuse an American because the same word can mean different things in the two countries. Almost every tourist learns that in England a "lift" is an elevator. But who has been warned that an English "biscuit" is what an American calls a "cookie," and that an American biscuit, also called "shortbread," is a British scone?

Several English silver-plated biscuit boxes were sold at a Neal auction recently along with labeled rectangular wooden boxes and covers. and decorated tin boxes filled with loose cookies (biscuits) for the store. One of the silver boxes was made by James Dixon & Sons, a well-known Sheffield manufacturer that worked from 1804 to 1992. It is almost 11 inches high. Each of the shell-shaped bowls had a hinged, pierced flap that kept the heat and the biscuits in place when the sides were opened and became flat bowls to serve the cookies. The flaps are often missing when the biscuit box is sold.

Q: How can I clean the marble top on an antique chest? The chest is probably over 100 years old. There are some stains on the marble that look like some kind of liquid spilled on it.

A: The easy way is to buy a commercial marble stain remover. You can also try a home remedy. Wash the marble top with dishwashing liquid and hot water, rinse well and dry thoroughly. Use a soft cloth or a bristle brush if needed. Then you can try one of the many do-it-yourself methods. Different solutions clean different types of stains. If the marble is a light color, try a mixture of several tablespoons of 6% hydrogen peroxide and a tablespoon of baking soda. Mix into a thick paste, the consistency of peanut butter. Spread it in a 1/4-inch-thick layer on the stain. Cover with plastic wrap, tape the edges and let it dry for 24 hours. Use a plastic (not metal) spatula or a damp sponge to remove the paste, rinse and buff dry. Repeat the process if necessary. Recipes for the mixture use 6% to 12% hydrogen peroxide. Some add a little ammonia and more baking soda. There are many mixtures mentioned online. Good luck. Some stains can't be removed. ***

Canal Insurance expanding, locating headquarters in downtown Greenville

The Greenville Area Development Corporation (GADC), charged with promoting and enhancing quality of life in Greenville County by facilitating job growth and investment, has announced that Canal Insurance Company -- 82 years young and with an eye on a vibrant future -will expand operations in Greenville County by relocating to a new headquarters location on North Main Street in downtown Greenville. The move aligns with the commercial truck insurance company's strategic plans for current and future growth.

Founded in 1939, and rated A- (Excellent) by A.M. Best, Canal specializes in insurance for commercial trucking and other specialty transportation operations. The company provides comprehensive insurance products and services including auto liability, motor truck cargo, physical damage, trucker's general liability coverages and risk management services.

Currently headquartered at 400 East Stone Avenue in Greenville, Canal will relocate to 101 N. Main America Building - in mid-2022 to support the company's growth plans and further increase its commitment to more than 230 employees and the Greenville community. Having hired 85 new employees over the last 3 years, Canal has shown its dedication to job creation in the area, and the relocation will continue to strengthen its recruitment efforts. The company currently has an additional 10 open positions featured on its website.

Street - the former Bank of

"On behalf of Canal shareholders and employees, we are excited to deepen longstanding roots in South Carolina and further invest in our people and the community with the decision to move to the 101 North Main building, said Paul Brocklebank, President and CEO of Canal Insurance Company.

"As a family-owned company, we have considered Greenville home for more than 80 years and share a keen appreciation for the advantages of expanding operations and recruiting employees in such a vibrant city and business environment. We view the new office space and location to be a smart fit with the Canal strategy and focus on collaboration and innovation, as we craft new insurance products and services designed for the next generation of motor carrier customers."

Over the last decade, the company has begun to operate "more like a startup than an eight-decadeold organization," added Mr. Brocklebank, pointing to Canal's new product offerings, innovative initiatives, incorporation of leading-edge technology and commitment to adding "an entirely new caliber of employee" to take the organization into the future, he said.

"Since 1939, Canal has been a leader in providing insurance and risk management for commercial trucking and specialty transportation services, and they have been excellent contributors to Greenville County's corporate community. Greenville County congratulates Council Canal on the relocation of the company to its new headquarters in Greenville and wishes them continued growth and success here," stated Greenville County Council Chairman and Greenville Area Development Corporation Board Member Willis Meadows. Canal Insurance Company will take approximately 65,000 square feet of office space at 101 N. Main Street for its new corporate headquarters, and will have exclusive exterior signage rights, signifying the company's long-term commitment to Main Street. The location anchors Greenville's ONE City Plaza in the heart of downtown Greenville. Following an upfit of the space, Canal will become the anchor tenant in the tower, occupying five floors and over one-third of the building. Collier's office brokerage team represented Canal in the transaction.

"From here you can change the world' is the City of Greenville's economic development anthem," commented City of Greenville Mayor Knox White. "During the Great Depression and into World War II, Canal Insurance Company and its founders did just that in the longhaul trucking industry. Over the past 80+ years, Canal has grown their business from Greenville. We congratulate them on their expansion and welcome them into the heart of downtown. Bringing another respected, nationally known company headquarters to Main Street shows that Greenville is resourced and ready for quality growth and development."

Canal's newly upfitted headquarters is expected to be ready for occupancy by mid-year 2022. Individuals interested in joining the Canal team should visit the company's careers webpage.

The Greenville Area Development Corporation is a non-profit organization established by Greenville County Council to promote and enhance the economic growth and development of Greenville County. Since its founding in 2001, GADC efforts have resulted in the creation of over 30,000 new jobs, nearly $6 billion in capital investment, and a cumulative economic impact of over $55 billion in Greenville County, SC -- including an economic impact of more than $6 billion annually. Receding glaciers carved out cavities in the landscape. Some evolved into wet, muddy "bogs." Those with more sand and clay formed the perfect environment for cranberry plants to grow in abundance. North American tribes harvested the sasumuneash, as they called the berries, for thousands of years. The cultivation of the cranberry by European settlers began around the early 1800s. Harvesting the berries finishes in October (by November the bogs become dormant) and the fruit is often used for holiday meals.
